

NEW: lecture by Jürgen Ruland

2016-01-13 15:55

We are very happy to announce that Jürgen Ruland, Immunologist at the Technical University of Munich, will give a lecture about signaling in innate immune response on the 26nd February.

Unfortunately , Joe Heitman, who was planned to give the International Union of Biochemistry and Molecular Biology (IUBMB) lecture, will not be able to attend the course.
