

FEBS Travel Grants

A limited number of YTF travel grants is provided by FEBS. These grants cover part of the registration fee; additional funding has to be secured by the participants to cover the full expenses, including traveling to Jena.

Details can be found and application will be possible on the official FEBS course website to be opened soon.